

OK, PDX MINI members-

Are you interested in attending the Portland Historic Races (PHR) this year?

What are Portland Historic Races? See these links:

As you may have noticed on the 2009 club schedule, PDX MINI is not hosting an all-out, 'official event' at the PHR in 2009.

Why? That weekend (July 10th-12th) coincides with the Relay For Life fundraiser that PDX MINI is taking part in as a club.

Since the Portland Historic Races have been an annual ritual for some club members, PDX MINI will certainly accommodate the desire of interested members, to attend the "Unofficial, 'not-really-on-the-schedule-event', event.

The PDX MINI car corral will still be available, to those who pre-purchase ticket packages through Bronson Graff. You can take advantage of the club's ability to have access to a dedicated parking corral in the Portland International Raceway (PIR) infield, and affordable spectator tickets for the weekend.

The cost of the 3-day weekend package is just $45.00. It includes:

- Two 3-day admission passes/ for 2 adults.
- One 3-day corral pass for your car
- A PHR commemorative plaque
- Parade lap around the track, each day at lunch.
- Access to the Charity Autocross (donations to the Children's Cancer Society)
- If you need to buy additional spectator passes, you can do so here:

Just so you understand... this year, PDX MINI will not have the full complimentary supply of food and beverages in the car corral, nor the shade canopies, etc. But, there are plenty of options for food and refreshments trackside, and you certainly may bring your own, BYOB style. One of us might have a canopy too. No guarantees though. :-)

DEADLINE to Send Payment. June 1st. This is a hard deadline, no exceptions. Let me explain...

You have until June 1st, (two weeks from now) to have your payment in his hands. That means send it NOW. If it comes to me on June 2nd, he'll be forced to send it back to you. Why? Because the main entry form will be submitted to the Portland Historic Races organizers, by the June 1st deadline.

If you have questions, ask them now! Otherwise, reply to bransongraff@comcast.net and let him know how many packages you would like. Then send your check!

Payments can be made out to, and sent to:
